STATE NEWS.

John Dunn, brother of Supreme Judge Dunn, of this city, died at his home in Dixfield on the 29th ult., aged 70 years.

The Maine Central Railroad has received a communication from the citizens of the city of Rockland, requesting the location of a station at that city.

The body of the Gilead boy, drowned in Androscoggin, Sunday, was recovered Tuesday.

The fire near Bowling Brook, spread over 2,000 acres of land in Franklin county, and destroyed 1,000 cords of wood, 2,000 cords of bark, and 1,000 cords of logs. The loss is $15,000, and is said to be fully covered by insurance. The fire is under control.

Portland Monday to go into building on the Back Bay. The cause of the fire is unknown. Loss about $5,000; insurance $3,000.

Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Hon. Amos Wheeler of Newburyport, died on the 23rd inst., after a lingering illness of nearly two years.

Pneumonia.

The Observer says: The following companies of Kennebunk Veteran Battalion have responded to Adj. Elliot, and chose the following officers: Drury Guards, Co. A: Capt. Jas. Bonson, 1st Lieut. Geo. W. Miller, 2d Lieut. Wm. Atkinson. Co. D: Capt. W. Wyman, Greenville, 1st Lieut. Lawrence Abbot, Co. F, Capt. Chas. Pendleton, Co. G, Capt. J. Briggs, 1st Lieut. A. P. Fraser. The Lisbon and Guilford companies have not reported yet, but we understand that they will do so in due season. The Battalion will muster every company that has reported to the Adjutant has a full complement of men. Drill commences on the 1st Monday in September.

The annual exhibition of the Maine Pomological Society will be held at Lewiston, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 4th and 5th. Hon. Samuel L. Boothby, of Bangor, is President, and Hon. Wm. Gilmore, of Lewiston, Secretary. The object of the Society is to encourage the growing of fruit in Maine. The Society will hold its annual meeting in connection with the Central Fair, which is to be held this year on the days adopted by the Exhibition.

Rev. Mr. Richard of Dennis, and Rev. Mr. Prescott, county and state missionary of the Maine Missionary Society, were installed as pastors of the Baptist Church of Saco Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Bradbury, of Fairfield, while at work Saturday night at the mill of Abbey & Wyman, in that town, had his left hand caught in the saw and it was cut off at the wrist. He was taken to the house of Mr. Abbey, where Dr. Weston dressed the wound.

A band of Gypsies encamped on the Fuller farm, in Hampden, Monday night, and left Tuesday morning. They had been in Hampden about a week, and had a number of horses with them. They were in Bangor Monday, and left that city for Hampden.

The body of the Gilead boy, drowned in Androscoggin, Sunday, was recovered Tuesday.

The dye shop, belonging to Mr. Wm. Bond, of Oxford, N. H., was burned Monday morning, with its contents, and the dwelling house of Mr. Bond was also destroyed. Loss about $3,000; insurance $1,000. Mr. Bond is a widower, and has been keeping house for himself and two children.

Mr. Ira Hamilton, of Bangor, has invented a patent pocket-book, which he says can retain a bunch of bank bills. Mr. Cobb and Mr. Hamilton have each sold a right to manufacture, and they highly recommend it.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

Hon. T. B. Reed Renominated.

PORTLAND, Aug. 1. The Republican convention for the First District met here at 10 o'clock this afternoon, with John Hill of North Berwick, chairman. Three hundred and twenty-four qualified delegates were present. Hon. Thomas B. Reed was renominated by acclamation. Mr. Reed spoke briefly on the financial issues. The resolutions favor the State platform and Mr. Reed's printed resolution endorsing President Hayes was then distributed among the delegates and a delegate is accepted to put it in, but a motion to adjourn closed the proceedings with a ringing Democratic Resolution.

BRUNSWICK, Aug. 1. The Democratic Congressional Convention of the First District met in City Hall at half o'clock this morning. Hon. Caleb E. Hilyer, was chosen chairman. The Committee on Credentials reported 322 delegates present. The chairman read a letter from Hon. John M. Goodwin, positively declining re-nomination. The Convention then proceeded to ballot for a nominee and Gen. Samuel C. Anderson, of Portland, was nominated on the first ballot, requiring 170 votes out of 340. Gen. Anderson accepted, making a short and effective speech. The Convention was large and harmonious.
